

Safetrac Compliance LMS

Meet your compliance obligations with ease.
Manage training, policies and reporting in one.

Why a Compliance LMS is key for effective compliance training

Compliance training is a critical aspect of ensuring organisational success, but it is also one of the most challenging types of training to deliver. It requires a thorough understanding of the regulatory framework, an ability to communicate complex legal requirements, and a strong commitment to ethical behaviour.

In order to provide employees with the best possible training experience, organisations should consider housing their compliance training within a specialised Compliance Learning Management System (LMS), instead of using a standard LMS like GO1.

Shows strong commitment to compliance and laws

Contains the right features you need to maintain compliance

Reduces risk of non-compliance and reputational damage

Saves time on compliance training management
